

Professional Presentation Skills

Make a real impact on your audience by presenting persuasively, confidently and with credibility.

Who is it for?

For those that want to deliver presentations more effectively, or that dread standing up in front of an audience. This short programme is popular with team leaders, project managers, marketing professionals and all levels of management.

Overview

Presentations are a highly effective medium of communication used with colleagues, project teams, management and customers. This two day workshop will provide delegates with the opportunity to practice the preparation and delivery of both formal and informal presentations. It is designed to enhance basic presentation skills, improving self confidence and assisting delegates to create a more professional impact.

Delegates will be given a systematic method for ensuring that their presentations are effective and achieve the necessary objectives. All presentations will be positively and constructively critiqued by both peer group and tutors. Video feedback will also be provided if required.

The programme is designed to enhance basic presentation skills, improving self confidence and assisting participants to create a more professional impact.

Workshop Objectives

- Identify personal challenges and sources of tension associated with public speaking and acknowledge a key area for personal development.
